

I am strongly opposed to any change in the Indiana do not call law. There is no reason that banks or anyone else should be exempt. with the use of computer calling, there is no defense against unwanted calls. you can't even hang up on them. do not let this pass